ISOTOPES DROP GAME ONE, 6-2: The fierce Albuquerque Isotopes lineup ran into a brick wall of pitching, as the Memphis Redbirds, led by starter Jaime Garcia, shut down the 'Topes en route to a 6-2 win and a 1-0 series lead Wednesday night at Isotopes Park. Memphis jumped out to a quick lead in the very first frame, plating a pair of runs when Jon Jay and Tyler Greene laced back-to-back hits before Jarrett Hoffpauir followed with a single that scored Jay and put the 'Birds on the board 1-0. A Brian Barden groundout then scored Greene to increase the advantage to 2-0 'Birds. Shane Robinson ignited a second Redbirds rally in the second with a one-out single and advanced to third when pitcher Jaime Garcia laced a double. Jay scored Robinson with a groundout and Greene knocked in Garcia with a base hit to bolster the early lead to 4-0 after just two innings. The early four run cushion was more than enough Garcia, whose work on the mound was even better than at the plate. The left-hander set down 13 straight Isotopes before Jamie Hoffmann broke the streak with an infield single. Garcia fanned six in his first turn through the Isotopes lineup, including five of the first six batters he faced. Memphis tacked on one more run in the fifth to grab a 5-0 lead and threatened for more in the sixth if not for some nifty fielding by Chin-Lung Hu. With a runner on first and second with no outs, Matt Pagnozzi hit a roller to the shortstop, who tagged the runner at second, stepped on first to retire the runner coming from first, and fired to first in time to get the batter, completing a triple-play. The momentum would be doused by Mother Nature, as a heavy rain and electrical storm caused a delay that lasted over two hours in length. When the rain cleared, the 'Topes came out swinging, scoring two in the bottom of the sixth. Tony Abreu put Albuquerque on the board with an RBI triple that scored J.D. Closser and trimmed the lead to 5-1. Abreu was then cashed in by a single by Hector Luna to bring Albuquerque even closer at 5-2. Memphis would get a run right back in the eighth on a home run by Hoffpauir and the Redbirds bullpen shut down the 'Topes the rest of the way to cruise to a 6-2 win.

GEO-GRAPHY: With Albuquerque in a veritable must-win situation, the 'Topes turn to staff ace Giancarlo Alvarado, who enters playoff action on a roll. The right-hander has won each of his last two starts while posting a 0.75 ERA (1 ER / 12.0 IP). One of those victories was a brilliant performance on August 30 against the Redbirds, when he held Memphis to one run on three hits in six innings, helping the 'Topes clinch a playoff spot. In four starts against the 'Birds this year, Alvarado is 3-1 with a 1.80 ERA (5 ER / 25.0 IP).

TRIPLE TREAT: Last night's triple play turned by Chin-Lung Hu was just the third in the seven-year history of the Isotopes. The first two, strangely enough, happened in the same season, 2007, when the Isotopes turned a triple play at home on May 28 and ended the year with another one in Round Rock on August 28.

ONLY ONE GAME: Dating back to 2004, the team that won the first game of the Conference Final round (first round) of the PCL playoffs has gone on to win the series just four out of 10 times. Last year, Iowa and Salt Lake both won the first games of their playoff series only to eventually lose each series to Oklahoma and Sacramento, respectively.

ABREU-TIFUL: Tony Abreu continues to be a key cog in the Isotopes attack, roping an RBI triple last night that amounted to Albuquerque's only extra-base hit while accounting for both the 'Topes' two runs. In his last five games, Abreu is batting .400 (6x15) with five runs, a triple, a homer, and five RBI.

PLAYOFF FEVER: Despite dealing with a rainy Wednesday night with school and work in full swing, the Isotopes still drew the largest crowd of all four Triple-A playoff games played last night and the second largest in all of Minor League Baseball. Only the Great Lakes Loons, Single-A affiliate of the Dodgers, drew more fans for their playoff game (4,801) than the 'Topes' 3,660 last night.

TODAY'S START: Giancarlo Alvarado makes the playoff start riding a two-game winning streak after closing out the season with a win on September 4 at Iowa, allowing just three hits in six shutout innings in a 5-1 win. The victory was Alvarado's 13th on the year, tied for a team record in wins with Eulogio De La Cruz, who won 13 in 2008. Earned the victory August 30 vs. Memphis at Isotopes Park when he held the Redbirds to one run on three hits in six innings while striking out two and fanning five in an 8-4 win. The triumph clinched the PCL American Southern Division for Albuquerque, guaranteeing the team's first post-season appearance since 2003. Also went 2-for-3 at the plate with three RBI in the winning cause.

Earned his second win in relief on August 15 at Las Vegas when he took over for Josh Lindblom in the third inning and tossed 5.2 frames, allowing two runs on five hits while walking three and striking out seven in a 4-2 Isotopes win. His only two runs allowed came on back-to-back homers in the eighth.

Enjoyed a streak of five straight home wins from June 23 to July 31 posting a 2.32 (8 ER / 31.0 IP). Earned his third straight win on July 31, a season high, after allowing three runs on six hits in 5.2 innings in a 5-3 victory over Oklahoma City. Earned a win over Iowa on July 26 when he allowed just two runs on seven hits in 7.1 innings while walking one and striking three in a 4-2 Isotopes victory. The triumph was Alvarado's eighth, the most he'd racked up in a single season in his entire 12-year career.

Had a complete-game loss that was spread out over two days that were separated by over a month. After starting a game in Round Rock that was suspended on June 11, Alvarado's turn in the rotation came up in time for the resumption of the contest on July 21 when the right-hander tossed seven additional innings finishing with five runs earned on nine hits in eight total innings while walking two and striking out a season-high 12 in a 5-1 'Topes loss.

Earned his seventh victory of the season, a 4-2 win vs. New Orleans at Isotopes Park when he allowed one run on three hits in six innings while walking two and striking out nine.

Had his most difficult outing of the season at Omaha on June 28 when he allowed a season-high six runs on a season-high nine runs, including two home runs, while walking one and striking out five in a 10-5 'Topes loss. Enjoyed a brilliant outing on June 23 vs. Nashville when he tossed a season-high seven shutout innings, allowing just four hits while striking out a season-high eight in a 1-0 win over the Sounds. Tossed seven frames in which he allowed just one run on four hits while walking one and striking out six in a 2-1 victory at Memphis on June 16.

Had yet another hard-luck loss at New Orleans on June 5, when he allowed just two runs on five hits in five innings while walking two and striking out five in a 2-0 loss to the Zephyrs. Earned his third win of the season on May 31 at Oklahoma City when he tossed a season-high six innings in which he allowed three runs on six hits while walking one and striking out six in an 8-3 Isotopes win.

Made one appearance out of the bullpen in which he earned his first win of the season. On April 25 at New Orleans, Alvarado tossed 3.2 scoreless innings in relief of starter Jeff Weaver, allowing just two hits while walking one and striking out a season-high six.

Made two relief appearances for Puerto Rico in the World Baseball Classic, posting a 2.25 ERA (1 ER / 4.0 IP) and was signed on March 20 after his team had been eliminated.

2008: Pitched entire season at Triple-A Salt Lake in the Angels organization, going 7-5 with a 4.27 ERA in 26 games (23 starts)... was third in the PCL with 131 strikeouts, fifth in strikeouts / 9 inn. ratio by a starter (8.95) 10th in ERA, and fifth in average against by a starter (.246)... ranked third on the club in starts and fourth in innings-pitched (130.2).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Giancarlo Alvarado... signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Pirates on July 17, 2005.
